

Any player who receives a major and an automatic game misconduct during the first, second or first half of the third period will serve the game misconduct in the current game. Any player who receives a major and an automatic game misconduct during the last half of the third and overtime periods shall be assessed the minimum automatic game(s) suspension as per the IHNSW's Competition Tribunal & Suspension Regulations. The suspension does not include the game in which the penalty was assessed, (i.e. Major penalty + Game Misconduct, Game Misconduct, or Match Penalty), but the automatic suspension will be the next game or games.

Fighting is not permitted IHNSW in any form, any prolonged confrontation where a player throws and lands a punch should be penalised with a Match (25') Fighting. Any incorrectly awarded Major (5') & Game Misconduct (20') penalties will be automatically upgraded to a Match (25') penalty.

5	Proper Authorities and Discipline i. "Proper Authorities" refers specifically to the immediate governing body of the game(s) being played. In addition to the on-ice officials, every game at IIHF championships and events is overseen by a referee supervisor and possibly a disciplinary panel or representative thereof. Actions which show a flagrant disregard for the rules of play may be dealt with after the game by proper authorities.	N/A	Tribunal
100	When Penalties Can Be Called iv. Any violations of the rules committed during the pre-game skate or underneath the stands cannot be punished by the assessment of penalties during the game as the on-ice officials were not participating in events at the time. Instead, these violations will be noted by the standby referee and dealt with, if necessary, by the proper authorities. v. No player or team official is allowed to enter the dressing room of the on-ice officials during the course of or immediately following the game. Any violation of this rule will be reported to the proper authorities.	N/A	Tribunal
105	Duration of Penalties/Major i. A major penalty constitutes five minutes of playing time and carries with it an automatic game-misconduct penalty. No substitution of this player is allowed in on-ice manpower for the five minutes. The penalized player must go to the dressing room, and a teammate designated by the coach through the captain must serve the penalty in full, regardless of how many goals the opposition scores. Once the five minutes has expired, the team may replace the skater for the game misconduct portion of the penalty.	Game Misconduct (GM)	1
107	Duration of Penalties/Misconduct ii. If a player is assessed a second misconduct any time during a game, it will become an automatic game-misconduct penalty instead. He must go to the dressing room but may be substituted immediately on ice, and no teammate has to serve his penalty.	Game Misconduct (GM)	1
